Look deeply, carefully into the crowd ...
 It's an awesome feeling to see the faces to hear the voices to feel the impact
 to touch the strength to taste the beauty
 to be a part and yet apart ...

Look to this day!
 For it is life, the very life of life.
 In its brief course Lie all the verities and realities of your existence:
     The bliss of growth
     The glory of action
     The splendor of achievement
 For yesterday it is but a dream
 And tomorrow is only a vision,
 But today well lived makes every yesterday
 A dream of happiness
 And tomorrow a vision of hope.
                     The Sanskrit.

Guided by oneself,
to produce
to fulfill to give to share ...

to possess and not to share is to live in blind pursuit.

And to the open-handed the search for one who shall receive is joy greater than giving.
Gibran

In the flow of daily life
I look for myself within the masses ...

... striving to be an integral part while retaining my identity ...

... among the crowd
 within the laughter
 inside the classroom
 over the shouting down the walkways
 outside the buildings on our campus ...

I see myself.

In the realm of our lives lies the significance of each person . . .

. . . a blind man cannot see yet he hears while a deaf man does not.
the artist may not sing well, so he expresses himself through colors while the musician communicates through sound.
So it is with the qualities of each being . . .

We are all not weak in the same spots, and so we supplement and complete one another, each one making up in himself for the lack in another.

Merton

Probing, questioning, discovering . . .
Such is the learning process.

... my library was dukedom large enough.
Shakespeare

Who can measure
What we give to life
Through our seemingly meaningless actions?

a sigh
a laugh ...

... unique to oneself,
immeasurable to others.

The dreadful reckoning, and men smile no more.

Gay

Be to her virtues very kind,
Be to her faults a little blind.
Prior

Finding what I want to do,
where I want to go and a means to fulfill my goals is the most complex problem facing me today.

What I must do, is all that concerns me, not what the people think . . .
the great man is he who in the midst of the crowd keeps with perfect sweetness the independence of solitude.
Emerson

Half the joy of life is in little things taken on the run.
 Let us run if we must—even the sands do that—But let us keep our hearts young and our eyes open That nothing worth our while shall escape us.

Cherbuliez

It is in our daily existence
 that we find happiness—
 In doing the little things that bind us together yet make us ourselves.

How can you ask if I'm happy going my way?
You might as well ask a child at play ...
There's no need to discuss or understand me,
I won't ask of myself to become someone else,
I'll just be me.

Yarrow and Yardley

Every day helps decide about us . . .

. . . about the richness of our wisdom,
the tenderness of our hearts,
or the fullness of our lives.
Forst

With all of yesterday as our guideline,
And the dreams of tomorrow as our motivation,
We are able to live each today to the fullest extent.

Let each season encircle all the other seasons,
And let today embrace the past with remembrance and the future with longing.

Gibran

Spirit is an individual matter as well as a group effort . . .

... it is in personal contributions that the significance of spirit lies.
In each one giving of himself what he is able and when he is able Lies the true essence of spirit.

I have met you and do not know how you came, and where you'll go.
When we talked, I could not see the inner beauty you offered me.
But as we live we will grow; I will understand this unknown glow,
It's not what you have given me—it's only what I see in me ...

... Thanks is such a finite word—love for all is now my course.
 You'll be there, a part of me—like the beauty of the endless sea.
 G. Rodriguez

Unification
yet Individualism
two of the many ingredients in Life ...

... almost seemingly impossible to join them both;
a co-ordination of the two that involves the group yet recognizes each one.

Uniting different factions to produce one ...

none stands alone ...

... to be outstanding implies the work of all.

ORCHESTRA

There is a strong yet sensitive beauty within the world of music.
 It is a beauty that enables one to express himself freely and openly With the path wide open there is infinite wonder to the depths the musician is able to enter.

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too . . .
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two imposters just the same . . .
If you can make one heap of all your winnings and risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss . . .
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a man, my son.

We give life
our beliefs
our ideals
our energy ourselves . . .

I am young
 I will live
 I am strong
 I can give You the strange
 Seed of day
 Feel the change
 Know the way

Beckett and Buckley

you shall above all things be glad and young.
for it you're young, whatever life you wear it will become you; and if you are glad whatever's living will yourself become.

ae.e. cummings

May the reality of Youth never leave us . . .
. . . let us always live with the freedom of thought the drive for change and the splendor of love.

... for the days
when we smiled
and the hours
that ran wild with the magic of our eyes
and the silence
of our words.
and sometimes I wonder just for awhile
will you ever remember me?

Buckley

I will receive from them not what they have,
 but what they are.
 They shall give me
                   that which properly
 they cannot give me,
                   but which radiates from them.

Emerson

With the small part of life
We have experienced here,
We move on . . .

... to new places, new people, new events.
 Change is inevitable.
 Time cannot stand still.
 We cannot stand still.
 Youth renders us to seek the answers to probe the mysterious to run with the wind and discover the new ...
 ... with each one seeking probing running and discovering the essence of life in his own Individual way.

I am only one,
 But still I am one.
 I cannot do everything,
 But still I can do something;
 And because I cannot do everything
 I will not refuse to do the something that I can do.

In the olden days

Wearing a ring on the forefinger signified
a haughty spirit;
On the middle finger, prudence and dignity;
On the "ring" finger, love;
On the little finger, a masterful spirit.
Today, on any finger, your Balfour class ring symbolizes moments and memories shared with your classmates.
Treasure them always.
